MRS. HARTLEY'S CASE.

She is indicted for Murder by the Washoe Grand Jury.

The Journal has the following: The Grand Jury made a partial report yesterday afternoon and adjourned until next Monday morning at 9 o'clock. Indictments were found as follows: Alice M. Hartley, murder; Harry Dubois, escaping from jail; John Frost, attempt to kill. The charge against John Ryan for assault was ignored.

Shortly after the Grand Jury had adjourned the prisoners were arraigned before the court to plead. Mrs. Hartley was granted until 10 o'clock this morning to plead, at the request of her attorney, E. R. Dodge. James Henry Frost pleaded not guilty, John Bowman was appointed to act as Frost's attorney. Henry Dupois was given till 10 o'clock today to plead, and Judge Cossitt was appointed to defend him. The days of trial for the several cases will be set by the court today.

When Mrs. Hartley was brought into the presence of the Court by Sheriff Caughlin, she did not look towards the spectators in the body of the courtroom, but firmly and quietly walked to a chair near her lawyer, Mr. E. R. Dodge, sat down and listened to the reading of the indictment that had been found by the Grand Jury. As the reading was finished, and to the query of the Clerk whether she pleaded guilty or not guilty, she partially arose from her chair and in a quiet, firm voice answered, "I plead not guilty." Mr. Dodge interrupted, and asked that the prisoner be granted until Monday morning to plead. The Court set the time for 10 o'clock this morning for the plea to be entered.

Notwithstanding that Mrs. Hartley's demeanor was very quiet, it could be seen that she was very considerably agitated. As she took her seat after the reading of the indictment a spasm passed over her features that was a strong indication of the pent-up excitement under which she was laboring. She controlled herself immediately, and the extreme pallor of her face was the only outward sign of her feelings. At the conclusion of the court proceedings, she retired from the Court room in charge of the Sheriff.

Every movement and act during the short arraignment of the prisoner showed her to be a person of culture and wonderful self-control.

Kennedy "New Era" Notes.

There is a dearth of reading matter in the camp, and a man in the book and periodical line could do a rushing business.

Buildings are going up rapidly, but as yet no lodging house is in sight, although one is badly needed at the present time.

The Imperial company is having the waterways in the canyons west of town cleaned to allow the water to flow unobstructed.

The placer grounds in the canyons leading up to Cinnabar mountain are receiving the attention of the prospector, and nearly all the ground has been located.

Chinamen from American canyon are coming into camp on foot by the way of Cinnabar summit. They have been engaged by white men to work placer ground in and about Kennedy.

W. G. Wilkinson and partner have uncovered a rich vein of ore on their claim adjoining the Imperial. A bet was made that a piece of the ore would assay $500 to the ton.

On the Olympian claim, a mile north of town, owned by Riley, Burkin and Davidson, an incline is down 107 feet on ledge matter, assaying from $50 to $100 in gold and silver.

The Imperial mill is fast nearing completion. When the concentrators arrive, the mill will be nearly ready for operations, and capable of reducing 1200 tons of ore each month.

People who have never visited Kennedy can have no conception of the possibilities of the camp. Up to the present time there has been no camp in the State that has in any way approached the favorable appearance of this place, and we predict that inside of two months 500 men will be working in the mines and mines of Kennedy.

THE STRIKERS' TRIAL

Peculiar proceedings by Judge Fisher.

Woodland, Cal., Aug. 4.—When the train-wrecking case was resumed this morning, Attorney Cook, for the prosecution, referred to the alleged confessions of witness Lasher, the young man who testified against the strikers early in the week, and on cross-examination admitted that he had told several persons that he expected to be paid for his testimony. At the request of the defense Lasher was then locked up.

At the County Jail last night Lasher wrote out a confession, seriously implicating Judge Armstrong of Sacramento, who has been more or less identified with the prosecution since the case opened. Later, however, the officials at the jail induced Lasher to scratch out his references to Judge Armstrong.

Judge Fisher then released Lasher and allowed him to go to a hotel. This morning Attorney Cook asked permission to put Lasher on the stand to prove that no offer was made to him by the prosecution to testify in the case. The defense objected and the request was not granted.

Martin Hollarin, yardmaster at Sacramento, was called and repeated threats that Mullin had made when they were preparing to send a train out of Sacramento, immediately after the first train had been wrecked. Mullin declared that the engineer who took out a train would be a dead man before he rode ten miles.

Just before the noon recess Justice Fisher intimated that he would probably admit defendants Knox, Mullin and Compton to bail, the evidence against them not being strong enough to warrant his holding them longer without bonds.

The War in the Orient.

Shanghai, Aug. 4.—Captain Galsworth, Chief Officer Tamplin and Quartermaster Evangelist of the sunken transport Kowshung, rescued by boats of the Japanese cruiser, have been taken to Sasebo, where they are held as prisoners. Admiral Freemantle, in command of the British China squadron, has ordered the Alacrity from Sushiza to Sasebo with instructions to demand the release of the British sailors. Upon his arrival at Nagasaki, the commander of the British cruiser was informed that the prisoners would be delivered to him today.

A dispatch has been received concerning the report of a second battle at Yashan between Chinese and Japanese. The Chinese were defeated.

Truth About the Strike.

President Gompers of the Federation of Labor has an able article in the August "North American Review" and "Federationist" concerning the Pullman and A. R. U. strike. It reviews the cause and justifies the strikers. Every man whose capital consists of brains and muscles, and who aims at an honest living, should read these articles. It costs just half as much as a cigar and does not "end in smoke."
